Lutheran Ladies Aid Christmas Meeting Held

Mrs. Vern Mead, president, presided at the Christmas meeting of the Immanuel Lutheran Ladies aid. Pastor A. L. T. Schuetz opened the devotions with a prayer, and the children of Immanuel Lutheran Day school sang several hymns. Mrs. Theodore Zoll composed and directed the devotional playlet, entitled "Christmas Joy: A Promise Fulfilled." Among those taking part in this presentation of the Christmas story in song and scripture were Mmes. James Pelkey, Vern Mead, James Johnson, of Torrance.

Among those visitors present were Mmes. A. Dahl, Hollywood Riviera; James Pelkey, and Donald Hitchcock, Torrance.

Since Mrs. Hannah Saylor is in Harbor General Hospital and Mrs. Isabel Bennett in a home in Los Angeles, it was suggested that they be remembered at Christmas with a card shower. Addresses may be obtained from any member.

Christmas Gift

Plans are underway at administrative headquarters of the Los Angeles County Public library to give a Christmas gift to its thousands of young adult patrons, many of them registered at the Torrance branch, 1345 Post Ave., that will last all through the year.
